II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE.

22. This Court has jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1332 in that there is complete diversity of citizenship and the amount in controversy exceeds the sum or value of $75,000, exclusive of interest and costs. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1391.

III. FACTS.

23. On or about July 31, 2014, Ross entered into what it believed was a valid and enforceable contract with Turner Grain, Inc. (hereinafter "Turner Grain") to provide 400,000 bushels of yellow corn at a price of $5.69 per bushel. (hereinafter referred to as the "Turner Contract"). A copy of said contract is attached hereto as Exhibit 1.

- 24. As evidenced by the Turner Contract, Ross was the "Seller" and Turner Grain was the "Broker." The Turner Contract also references an undisclosed entity as "Purchaser." Upon information and belief, the "Purchaser" of Plaintiffs' corn were Gavilon Grain, LLC, Ivory Rice, LLC, Agribusiness Properties, LLC, Oakley Grain, Inc., and perhaps others. (hereinafter "Purchasers").
- 25. Ross, along with Gracewood, GraceAG, CC&B, Triple C, and Reality, supplied 335 truckloads, or approximately 310,000 bushels of yellow corn, shipped to and/or on behalf of Purchasers pursuant to the Turner Contract. A copy of shipping tickets evidencing grain shipped from Plaintiff's farms are attached as follows: Exhibit 2A-Ross; Exhibit 2B-Gracewood; Exhibit 2C-Grace Ag; Exhibit 2D-CC&B; Exhibit 2E-Triple C; and, Exhibit 2F-Reality.
- 26. While not named parties in the Turner Contract, Gracewood, GraceAG, CC&B, Triple C, and Reality were intended and/or third-party beneficiaries under said contract.
- 27. Turner Grain is not a corporation licensed to do business in either the State of Mississippi or the State of Arkansas, nor was it an authorized fictitious name of any other corporation licensed to do business in the State of Mississippi or Arkansas. Despite not being licensed to do business in the State of Mississippi or Arkansas, Turner Grain conducted business in said states by virtue of its dealing with Plaintiffs.
- 28. Upon information and belief, Turner Grain is a partnership arising under the law of the State of Arkansas by the intent of its members, who are, upon further information and belief, Jason T. Coleman and Dale C. Bartlett. It is further believed that Neauman Coleman and Christopher Taylor, by virtue of their relationships with Jason T. Coleman and Dale C. Bartlett, as well as to other suspected, interrelated alter ego corporations of these individuals or Turner Grain Merchandising, Inc., as well as Purchasers herein, are or may have been members of this partnership as well. Additional individuals whose identities are currently unknown are or may be members of this partnership, and Plaintiffs reserve the right to amend this Complaint to assert claims against those individuals as their identities become known.

- 29. Upon information and belief, Jason T. Coleman, Neauman Coleman, and Christopher Taylor (the "Individual Defendants"), along with Dale C. Barlett, used entities or fictitious entities including but not limited to Turner Grain, Inc., Turner Grain Merchandising, Inc., Agri-Petroleum Sales, LLC, Agribusiness Properties, LLC, Ivory Rice, LLC, Brinkley Truck Brokerage, LLC, LJTC, LLC, Neuman Coleman & Co., LLC, Rice America, Inc., Rice Arkansas, Inc., and Turner North, LLC (the "Corporate Defendants") and perhaps various others which may or may not be named as Defendants herein, as interrelated alter egos of the same entity. While all of the above named corporate Defendants appear to be separate and distinct corporations, these corporations are, in all actuality, the alter egos of one another and of the Individual Defendants, would disregard the corporate form of the Corporate Defendants.
- 30. Upon information and belief, Defendants disregarded the corporate form of the Corporate Defendants to transfer money and/or property between one or more of the Corporate Defendants herein, or some authorized/unauthorized fictitious name of any of the Corporate Defendants herein.
- 31. Upon information and belief, Defendants and/or one or more of these suspected alter egos entered into contract(s) with Purchasers for the sale of Plaintiffs' yellow corn, with such corn to be delivered to destinations provided by Purchasers. (hereinafter referred to as the "Purchaser-Turner Contracts").

- 32. Upon further information and belief, Purchasers entered into contracts with end-users of Plaintiffs' yellow corn, including but not limited to Tyson Foods, Inc., Foster Farms, Pilgrim's Pride and perhaps others ("End-Users") and that, in the weeks subsequent to the date of the Turner Contract, approximately 335 truck loads or approximately 310,000 bushels of Plaintiffs' corn was delivered to the End-Users pursuant to the Purchaser-Turner Contracts.
- 33. Upon further information and belief, said End-Users have paid Purchasers for the corn delivered from Plaintiffs' farms and/or Purchasers are in possession of funds paid to Purchasers by End-Users for Plaintiff's corn.
- 34. Upon information and belief, some or all of Purchasers have not yet paid Turner Grain or any of its authorized/unauthorized fictitious names or interrelated alter ego corporations, for all sums due and owing pursuant to the Purchaser-Turner Contracts. Should it be discovered that such funds have not been paid, Plaintiffs reserve the right to amend to name any Purchaser as a party to compel interpleader and for other appropriate relief.
- 35. On August 27, 2014, Purchasers Oakley Grain, Inc. and Bruce Oakley, Inc. filed an Amended Complaint in Interpleader against these Plaintiffs and others in this Court, Cause No. 4:14cv483-KGB, wherein said Purchasers seek to interplead funds in the amount of $513,463 (referred to hereinafter as the "Oakley Interpleader Action").
- 36. Defendants and/or any of its authorized/unauthorized fictitious names or interrelated alter ego corporations have failed to pay Plaintiffs the amount due and owing to them for the corn delivered pursuant to the Turner Contract.
- 37. Plaintiffs reserve the right to amend this Complaint to state additional, relevant facts if and when they are discovered.

IV. CAUSES OF ACTION

A. BREACH OF CONTRACT.

- 38. Plaintiffs adopt and incorporate herein the allegations contained in paragraphs 1-37.
- 39. Plaintiffs assert a breach of contract claim against Defendants and/or any of its authorized/unauthorized fictitious names or interrelated alter ego corporations named herein.
- 40. Plaintiffs entered into a valid and enforceable contract with Defendants and/or one of its authorized/unauthorized fictitious names or interrelated alter ego corporations named as a Corporate Defendant herein.
- 41. Defendants were obligated to pay to Plaintiffs all sums due and owing under the contract for Plaintiffs' performance.
- 42. Defendants and/or one or more of its authorized/unauthorized fictitious names or interrelated alter ego corporations have failed to pay to Plaintiffs any of the said sums presently due and owing under the contract, thereby constituting a material breach.
- 43. As a result of the breach under the contract as set forth above, Plaintiffs have incurred substantial financial damage, and Plaintiffs will continue to suffer damage until all amounts due and owing under the contracts are paid.
- 44. Plaintiffs assert an award of attorneys' fees incurred as a result of the breach of contract as set forth above.

C. CONVERSION

- 45. Plaintiffs adopt and incorporate herein the allegations contained in paragraphs 1-44.
- 46. Plaintiffs have delivered corn to Defendants pursuant to the terms of the Turner Contract.

- 47. Plaintiffs have not been compensated for the delivered yellow corn by any of the Defendants.
- 48. Defendants have failed and refused to return Plaintiffs' corn, or the funds received from the sale thereof, and exercised dominion and control over Plaintiffs' property. Such exercise of dominion and control over Plaintiffs' property constituted a wrongful denial by Defendants of Plaintiffs' right to their property, whether it be corn or the proceeds obtained from the sale thereof.
 - 49. Defendants have wrongfully converted the property of the Plaintiffs.
- 50. Said conversion of Plaintiff's property has resulted in substantial damage to the Plaintiffs for which Defendants are liable.

D. NEGLIGENCE.

- 51. Plaintiffs adopt and incorporate herein the allegations contained in paragraphs 1-50.
- 52. All of the facts described herein were caused by the negligence of the Defendants, which consists of, but are not limited to the following, which negligence was a proximate cause of the damages sustained by Plaintiffs, viz:
 - a. Failure to use ordinary care:
 - b. Failure to maintain sufficient grain and/or funds in their control in order to meet the claims and demands of Plaintiffs;
 - c. Failure to use ordinary care under the circumstances;
 - d. Were otherwise guilty of negligence which will be more particularly described during the course of this litigation.

E. FRAUD IN THE INDUCEMENT

53. Plaintiffs adopt and incorporate herein the allegations contained in paragraphs 1-53.

- 54. Defendants falsely represented to Plaintiffs that Defendants would pay the amounts stated in the contract upon Plaintiffs' shipment of corn under the Turner Contract.
- 55. Defendants knew or should have known that they were unable to pay these amounts when they entered into the Turner Contract and such representation was materially false.
- 56. Defendants intended to induce Plaintiffs' reliance on their representation of payment under the Turner Contract.
- 57. Plaintiffs justifiably relied upon the Defendants' representations when they entered into the Turner contract to their detriment.
- 58. Plaintiffs have suffered, and continue to suffer, substantial financial damage as a result of their justifiable reliance upon the Defendants' material misrepresentation of fact.

F. CIVIL CONSPIRACY

- 59. Plaintiffs adopt and incorporate herein the allegations contained in paragraphs 1-58.
- 60. Defendants and perhaps others who are not parties hereto, knowingly entered into a conspiracy to defraud Plaintiffs of their corn and the proceeds therefrom.
- 61. Defendants and/or any of its authorized/unauthorized fictitious names or interrelated alter ego corporations, along with Purchasers and potentially other Defendants, have committed overt acts in furtherance of the conspiracy to defraud Plaintiffs of their corn and the proceeds therefrom.
- 62. Defendants intended to cause significant financial damage to Plaintiffs through the conspiracy.
- 63. As a result of Defendants' intention to cause harm to Plaintiffs, said Plaintiffs have suffered, and continue to suffer, substantial financial damage.

G. THEFT BY DECEPTION

- 64. Plaintiffs adopt and incorporate herein the allegations contained in paragraphs 1-63.
- 65. Defendants represented to Plaintiffs that Defendants would pay the amounts stated in the contract upon shipment of the Plaintiffs' corn, despite their knowledge that such representation was false and that they either would not be able to pay or simply would not pay the amount stated in said contract.
- 66. Such representation was a deception by the Defendants to deprive the Plaintiffs of their corn and the proceeds therefrom.
- 67. As a result of said deception, Plaintiffs have suffered, and continue to suffer, substantial financial damage.

H. ARKANSAS DECEPTIVE TRADE PRACTICES ACT

- 68. Plaintiffs adopt and incorporate herein the allegations contained in paragraphs 1-67.
- 69. Defendants intentionally deceived Plaintiffs when they represented that they would pay for all corn delivered under the Turner Contract. Additionally, Defendants intentionally employed a false pretense to induce the Plaintiffs to ship their corn to them under the Turner contract, knowing full well that they were either not going to pay, or could not pay, Plaintiffs for said corn.
- 70. Defendants concealed from Plaintiffs their inability to pay for Plaintiffs' corn contracted for. The fact that Defendants could not pay for all corn delivered by Plaintiffs was a material fact of the Turner Contract, and such concealment was meant to induce the reliance of Plaintiffs.
 - 71. Plaintiffs have suffered, and continue to suffer, significant financial damage as a result of the deception and concealment of the Defendants.

I. JOINT VENTURE.

- 72. Plaintiffs adopt and incorporate herein the allegations contained in paragraphs 1-71.
- 73. Upon information and belief, Defendants, along with others, possessed a common object and purpose with respect to the undertaking of obtaining Plaintiffs' grain upon false pretenses and each had an equal right to direct and govern the movements and conduct of one another with respect to such undertaking.
- 74. Additionally, Plaintiffs allege that Defendants shared in the profits and losses of such venture.
- 75. Accordingly, the relationship between the Defendants constituted a joint venture by and among one another with respect to the purchase of Plaintiffs' grain upon such false pretenses.
 - 75. Defendants are jointly and severally liable to Plaintiffs on account thereof.

J. DEMAND FOR AN ACCOUNTING.

- 76. Plaintiffs adopt and incorporate herein the allegations contained in paragraphs 1-75.
- 77. Defendants should be required to account to the Plaintiffs for all amounts paid by Purchasers under the Purchaser-Turner Contracts.

K. DECLARATORY JUDGMENT.

- 78. Plaintiffs adopt and incorporate herein the allegations contained in paragraphs 1-77.
- 79. Plaintiffs seek a finding by this Court that corn at issue was obtained by theft through the deception and contrivance of Defendants.
- 80. Plaintiffs seek a finding by this Court that any and all subsequent possessors, Purchasers, and End-Users of Plaintiffs corn are not bona fide purchasers of said corn, do not have good title thereto and that such corn, or the proceeds therefrom, should be returned to Plaintiffs.

- Plaintiffs seek a finding by this Court that, by virtue of the shipping tickets from Plaintiffs, that Defendants were on notice that each of these Plaintiffs were intended or third-party beneficiaries under the Turner Contract.
- 82. Plaintiffs seek a finding by this Court that Plaintiffs are the intended or third-party beneficiary of the contracts between Defendants, and/or any of its authorized/unauthorized fictitious names or interrelated alter ego corporations, and Purchasers.

WHEREFORE PREMISES CONSIDERED, Plaintiffs pray for the following relief against the Defendants, jointly and severally:

- (A) For a judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally, in the amount of $1,763,900, plus all costs, attorney's fees, less amounts recovered by Plaintiffs in the Oakley Interpleader Action;
- (B) That Defendants be required to provide an accounting of all corn or the proceeds from any subsequent sale of Plaintiffs' corn received, including the entity or entities which purchased the corn;
- (C) That Defendants be further required to provide detailed information concerning the amounts and current whereabouts of Plaintiffs' corn which has not yet been sold;
- (D) That Plaintiffs be granted a lien on any and all corn sold to Defendants by Plaintiff, with such lien extending to potential third party purchasers of said corn who may also be added to this action as additional Defendants;
- (E) For a judgment for damages in an amount to be determined, including a reasonable attorneys fees and legal costs incurred by Plaintiffs against Defendants for the necessity of bringing this action;

- (F) Punitive damages in an amount as may be appropriate;
- (G) Any other relief this Court deems appropriate in the premises; and
- (H) Plaintiffs demand trial by jury.

Respectfully Submitted,
